

CBIZE PA Service for Medical Treatment Companion

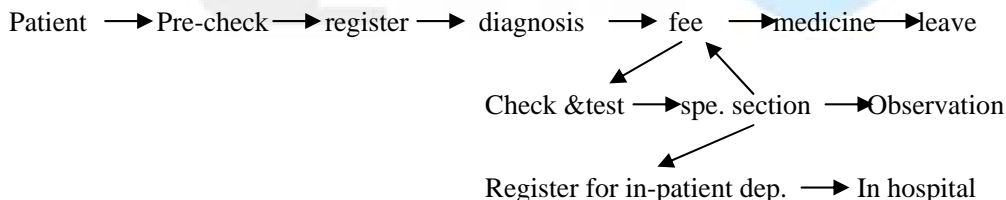

In December 1998, Shanghai adopted the policy of “Native Treatment” and cancelled the discriminative charge for foreign patients. Many hospitals in Shanghai provide special medical treatment as well as comprehensive medical treatment to meet the basic need for medical treatment of resident expats and foreign travelers in Shanghai. Foreign patients may choose the normal medical treatment or special medical treatment with higher price. However, due to the limitation of oral English of the medical staff, many expats find that they still encounter language barrier in receiving medical treatment.

China Business Engine provides personal assistant service of medical treatment companion for expats in Shanghai. All the CBIZE PAs have taken training courses prior to their service. With professional skill and ethics, CBIZE PA will certainly help you out. You may order CBIZE PA service online through “PA website system” with a 90% discount, or offline through e-mail, Live chat, Inquire or phone call before the exhibition and provide us the related information about your health condition (for the preparation work of PA).

The personal assistant you have ordered will accompany you to the hospital and help you in the communication between you and the medical staff. Meanwhile, PA will assist you in handling those insurance matters and register, etc.
